PRENTICE & HENDERSON. TRADE AND POPULATION OF NEW ORLEANS

We wish to speak with respect of the doings The New Orleans Commercial Bulletin contains of such a very highly respectable body of men the annual statement of the foreign and domes as the American Missionary Board, but we The New Orleans Commercial part and domestic annual statement of the foreign and domestic commerce of the city of New Orleans. In really think that the refusal of the Chortaws to really think that the refusal of the Chortaws to the general review which accompanies this state-the general review which accompanies this state-ment, allusion is made to the effect which the reason why the missionaries should be with construction of the railroads in the North and other causes therein mentioned have had in diverting trade from New Orleans. The Bulletin says.

A variety of causes have combined to increase.
